POLE RAISING

Rossford Taft Club Erect a 150 Foot Pole.

On Saturday afternoon the Republicans of Rossford demonstrated their faith in Republicanism by erecting a fine pole, 150 feet high, from which they unfurled the stripes and stars and a fine streamer bearing the names of Taft and Sherman and Southard.

There was a large crowd of people present, and as the flag was flung to the breeze J. W. Grabiel of Bowling Green, was introduced by committeeman V. D. P. Fildes. Mr. Grabiel made a fine speech which was received with marked attention and was loudly cheered. Following him Prosecuting Attorney J. E. Ladd, Hon. J. H. Southard, County Clerk E. L. Blue, Surveyor Gallier, and others were introduced and made brief speeches.

Squire Fildes has organized a Taft club of over 100 members and they are busy with the work of pushing the ticket.

Rossford is preparing to give a good account on November 3d.

Emanuel Scott While Insane Uses a Razor.

Emanuel Scott, aged 61, a veteran of the Civil war, tried to commit suicide at his home in Weston Sunday afternoon by cutting his throat with a razor. He nearly succeeded, as he missed the jugular vein by only a fraction of an inch.

Dr. W. W. Hill gave him surgical attention and Deputies Shoecraft and Davenport went over to Weston and brought Mr. Scott over to the county jail. He was given a hearing in probate court Monday and Judge Lincoln committed him to the Toledo State Hospital.

Mr. Scott is suffering from paresis, the result of injuries received in the war. He was sent to the asylum on September 4th last, but was allowed to return home in February.

VICTORY FOR LADD

The case as heard before Judge Cameron of Ottawa, Putnam county, sometime ago, and he has just rendered his decision in the matter.

ANDREW C. ROACH.

The above cut shows the face of our present Sheriff, Andrew C. Roach, born and raised in Perrysburg, and elected Sheriff in 1906. "Andy" has made an excellent official. He had several years' experience as Deputy Sheriff, and his two years as Sheriff has given him experience which make him an exceptionally able man for the office he so ably fills. Perrysburg people should remember Andy Roach when they vote in November.

THRILLING ACCIDENT

Milbury Man and Companion Miraculously Escape.

With no more serious injury than a wrenched leg, W. P. Head of West Toledo, just escaped being crushed Tuesday, when a Toledo & Indiana Interurban car, southbound, ran into a load of hay at Madison avenue and Superior street, tipping it over on top of the buggy in which Head was sitting at the curbstone.

J. H. Pinniger of Millbury, who was riding on the hay, jumped to the pavement and was unhurt. Neither his team nor the horse hitched to the buggy were injured, though the buggy was badly smashed.

RICHARD PRIEST DEAD

Dunbridge Veteran No More—Other Deaths.

Mr. Richard Priest a soldier and a gentleman passed away at his home in Dunbridge, O., October 14, at the age of sixty-eight years.

He received a paralytic stroke two years ago and since that time has been in failing health and another stroke received two weeks ago left him in such a weakened condition that he was past all medical aid and it was a marvel to the family and those in attendance that he was able to linger for two weeks.

A soldier in every sense of the word was Richard Priest and he was one of the honorary members of Co.

JUDGE EDWARD M. FRIES.

The Journal desires to call the attention of its readers, and all the people of Wood county, to the fact that in the nomination of Judge Edward M. Fries of Wood county, one of the candidates for Judge of the Common Pleas Court, of this District, they have a candidate who is in every respect worthy of the support of every citizen.

Judge Fries has served as Judge of this District for one term, and our knowledge of his character and ability warrant us in giving him our most enthusiastic support and endorsement. He is highly educated, a hard student, and deep thinker, and his knowledge of the law, his high opinion of the duties of his office, added to his firm sense of justice and right make him more than ordinarily capable of dealing fairly and impartially with all matters that may come before him.

He is in no sense a politician, and while he has always been a Republican, he has never allowed politics to influence him in his duty as a judge.

In every sense he is a clean, capable and honorable Judge and is truly worthy a second term as such.

resisting power of the buggy top, which kept the entire weight of the hay off of him until he was pulled out of the wrecked vehicle by a bystander.

CITIZENS BANKING CO.

It is impossible to make a thorough disclosure of a town without making a careful resume of the financial institutions, through the indispensable aid of which the progress and prosperity of the place is fostered and guarded, so a few words concerning the Citizens Banking Co., of Perrysburg, cannot but prove of interest here. This institution is the oldest and maybe quoted as one of the soundest banking houses in this part of the State of Ohio. It was organized in 1879, has a capital stock of $50,000.00 deposits of $359,079.60 and resources amounting to $420,158.50 which is indeed a good showing. Here is done a general banking business, money is loaned on approved security, preserving the accounts of firms and individuals, receiving the accounts of merchants, manufacturers and others, remitting collections at lowest rates, etc. The steady and reliable progress made by the Citizens Banking Co., has not only furnished complete evidence of its careful management, but has been of service to the town at large. Its officers and directors are: J. Davis, President; J. O. Troup, Vice President; Norman L. Hanson, Cashier; C. F. Chapman, John Kohl, L. B. Carter, William Comstock, David Main, William C. Perrin, A. C. Fuller, John Moser, Dr. J. H. Rheinfrank, D. K. Hollenbeck, George Munger, H. H. Sargent, A. J. Witzler. These gentlemen are among Perrysburg's most influential citizens and business men and have by their conservative and yet enterprising business management advanced the Citizens Banking Co. to the front rank of financial institutions of Wood county.
